TALK OF THE TOWN

Have your music machine reserved for Christmas now at Russell's. Dance in Howland hall Saturday evening: Gilbertson's orchestra—adv. Miss B. B. Williams, nurse from the University hospital in Philadelphia, is visiting at the home of Miss Madeline Williams of Averill street for a few days.

A meeting of Marquis De Lafayette chapter, D. A. R., will take place Saturday afternoon, Nov. 1, at the home of Mrs. E. W. Bishop, 5 East street, Barre.

Louis Manos, who has been visiting in Maine and Haddam, has returned to Burlington, where he is visiting his brothers.

J. P. Thayer, editor of the Morrisville Messenger, was a visitor among friends in Barre yesterday. Mr. Thayer is a former resident of Barre, having been connected with the Granite City Leader.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Premo returned Thursday night from a short visit in Maine and Haddam. They were married Oct. 20 in Bridgton, Me., by a former pastor of Washington, Rev. Paul Weller. The bride was formerly Ella Sanders, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Sanders of Orange, and they will reside at the present at the home of the bride's parents.

The Tosi academy football team has arranged a line of games which will keep the team in action during the remainder of the season. To-morrow the team will meet the University of Vermont second team on the Burlington grounds. The stone crushers are in fine form, but a hard battle is expected. On next Tuesday they will meet the Montpelier high school eleven at Montpelier, and on Saturday, Nov. 1, they will battle with the Northfield high school team. Other games with local teams have been partially arranged.

Captain Leakey of the Gaddard football team has put his squad of athletes through severe grilling this week and is confident that the team will be in fine shape to give the St. Michael's team a hard battle, though some of the men are still suffering from injuries received in past games. Coach Leakey will leave to-morrow morning at 11:15 with the following players: Wood, tackle, who has two ribs dislocated, and Gaughan, another semi-crippled player, suffering from water on the knee; A. Thompson, McMahon, E. Thompson, Capt. "Tag" Slayton, Freeman, Sullivan, Kelly, Poll, Wilmut, Barbero, Kezer, Eastman, Flannigan, Foster Slayton and Long. The boys expect a hard battle to-morrow, as the St. Michael's aggregation has not suffered defeat this season.

A rather small group of golfers attended the meeting of the Barre Golf club Wednesday evening in the city court room, but regardless of this, officers for the ensuing year were elected and the regular business disposed of. W. Curtis Johnson was chosen president, Duncan McMillan, jr., vice-president, James Preeland, secretary, and Mrs. W. A. Matheson, treasurer. The executive committee now consists of James Robertson, E. J. Walsh and L. R. Hutchinson. The reports submitted by the treasurer showed that the club was in satisfactory financial condition with excellent prospects for next year. A continuation of rights to the present course have been arranged, but in the meantime, the matter of a new course is to be taken up by the executive committee. Action regarding this last matter will be taken up very soon now. It is proposed that a drive for new members be put on in the spring and it is hoped that many new players may be secured for the club by next season. Prizes for the winners of this season's competitions have been ordered and will be presented at a banquet of the club members as soon as possible.

boys who went into the navy from Vermont, giving an excellent history of the work done by the boys in that department of our defense.

Prof. John M. Thomas of Middlebury college, who spoke on the history of Vermont's 12,000 men in the war, said in part:

"If the story could all be told, the record of Vermont in the great war would be found not less honorable than have part in the Civil war, orders honor to the Vermonters who fought side by side in the glorious 26th! And not less honor to the men who without the stimulus and comradeship of men from home also did their duty wherever and however the call of duty came."

Lieut. Gov. Mason S. Stone accepted the colors and shields for the state of Vermont, acting for Gov. Clement. He said in part:

"Vermont is proud to receive these standards of cleanness and of truthfulness and of uprightness in character and conduct, observed and maintained by our Vermont and other American boys overseas, and I am pleased to state at this time that from personal inquiry and observation I am convinced that no army ever conducted itself so well, so in accordance with the standards of right living and high ideals, as the American army in France."

"But Vermont is especially proud to receive these insignia on account of the splendid service of her boys. While all did not get to the front and into the trenches, which the great numbers of our boys heard the supreme command, since the supreme moment and made the supreme sacrifice by going over the top, while not many in comparison made the supreme sacrifice, yet every Vermont boy stood ready to perform his supreme duty and he would have performed it even if ordered into the very tragedy of the battle front. He would have performed it on account of the old patriotic spirit within him, and, after all, it is the spirit rather than the near deed that we admire, honor and respect."

"Therefore, whatever the service in which any Vermont boy was engaged, the mental or the tragic, we know that he had the ring-true spirit and he is thereby worthy of the common high honor."

Minor Automobile Accidents.

Among the accidents reported to the secretary of state this morning were George Bean, driving the Plainfield creamery truck, when it collided with automobile number 6088, registered to Henry H. Hager of Burlington a few days ago near Orange Center. They came around a curve that was hidden by trees and other obstacles.

H. M. Kenniston of Cabot sent in a report that his automobile tipped over and injured Joe Boucher, when the lights went out on the machine. Emilie Phoenix of Craftsbury reported an accident with Homer O. Bartlett of that town, when a collision took place.

The Lane Manufacturing company reported that Earl Corlies, riding a bicycle, ran into their truck at the corner of Corse street, Montpelier, Thursday. The truck was not damaged, but the bicycle was smashed to some extent.

Henry Church of Northfield reported that Myrtle Church was injured when she fell from an automobile. She became frightened because of a backfire, and got out on foot. W. Shearson of Richmond reported a collision between his machine and that of 10082, registered to A. Worthem of Richmond.

Have your music machine reserved for Christmas now at Russell's. But one football game is scheduled to be played in this city to-morrow afternoon, and that one will be at the Lincoln campus, beginning at 3 o'clock. Two of the best high school teams of the state will lock horns for the first time, Spaulding and St. Albans high. Spaulding has not met defeat in any of the games played this year, and there have been quite a number of contests.

some with very strong independent teams. On the other hand, St. Albans has won every game played this far. The Denmore brothers will be once again in the football togs to-morrow afternoon.

A rather informal farewell reception was tendered Mrs. N. J. Roberts at the home of Mrs. F. G. Howland on French street last evening by a group of friends from the Church of the Good Shepherd. The affair was given chiefly for an evening of entertainment in company with Mrs. Roberts, who, together with her son, Manton, and aunt, Mrs. Ada A. Roberts, leaves next Wednesday for Deland, Fla., to take up a permanent residence there. Refreshments were served and Mrs. Roberts was presented a beautiful bouquet of chrysanthemums as a token of esteem from her friends. It is with considerable regret that her friends bid adieu and especially since her active part in the church work will be much missed.

A regular meeting of Court Barre, No. 3317, I. O. O. F., will be held to-night at 7:30 in Foresters' hall. Per order R. S.

TALK OF THE TOWN

A daughter, weighing nine pounds, was born to-day to Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Bishop of South Barre.

Select your granola now at Russell's. We will deliver it Christmas morning. Russell's, the Rexall Store. Shortly after the industrial whistles of the city had blown the 7 o'clock summons and the activities for the day had gained an eight-minute start, a sudden stop came to all the electric machinery throughout the city through lack of electric power. The direct wires between the power plant at Bolton Falls and Barre in some manner was put out of order, which necessitated a detoured course for the electric power to reach this city. Some time passed before the machines started again. During this time, workmen, many of whom have an eager hound or a shining double-barreled shotgun awaiting their pleasure, took no chances on wasting time, but hastened to prepare for a tramp through the woods. The current was switched from the direct Bolton-Barre wire to the Montpelier wire after an investigation revealed the defect, and within an hour work was continued again. The repair work was begun immediately this morning, that everything might be running normally this afternoon.
